To Whom it May Concern:

I have been asked by the Court as a member of the Criminal Justice Act Panel to be “elbow counsel” for Randall Keith Beane, a defendant in a criminal case set in The Eastern District of Tennessee Federal Court. Mr. Beane has chosen to represent himself in his case. However, the Court asked if I would be “elbow counsel” so as to assist Mr. Beane with any procedural questions and to help with various issues he cannot do himself as he is in custody. Mr. Beane will make all the decisions about his case including filings and mailings.

Mr. Beane has asked if I would send out this mailing and asked for the return address to be my office. This is due to the fact that I can receive mail and get it to him at the detention facility easier than if it is sent directly to him at the jail. He represents himself and, as the Court instructed, I am assisting him with this task as he cannot handle this issue himself while incarcerated.

With best regards, I remain,

Attorney,

Stephen G. McGrath
